ANCESTRAL LIMA

We will start our tour with a panoramic view of the “Pucllana Pyramid”, a magnificent ceremonial and archaeological center built in the fourth century B.C. considered a “Sacred Village” by the Incas. Lima was the capital of the Viceroyalty of Peru, which was the most important during the Spanish Empire.

COLONIAL LIMA

We will visit the Historical Centre of Lima, where you will appreciate over fifty monuments and colonial edifications, such as the Paseo de La República, San Martín Square, the Main Square, the Government Palace, the Archbishop’s Palace, the Cathedral and the City Council Palace, among others.

We will go to the BANCO CENTRAL DE RESERVA MUSEUM in order to admire the “Treasures of Peru”, a finest collection of golden objects, ceramics and textiles from different pre-Columbian cultures.

We will continue our visit to monumental SAN FRANCISCO CONVENT, which displays the largest collection of colonial religious art in America. Here we will visit its underground vaults, best known as “catacombs”

COMTEMPORARY LIMA

We will go through the most traditional residential areas of Lima, such as El Olivar in San Isidro, Miraflores and Larcomar.

2 DAILY DEPARTURES: 9:15 AM / 2:15 PM

Banco Central de Reserva Museum closes on Saturday and Sunday afternoon. It is closed all day on Mondays.
