While visiting Peru Gold and Weapons of the world Museum, you will experience firsthand pre-Hispanic times. You will find golden objects and a great number of textiles, fabrics made of feathers, vessels, guacos and ceramics representing ancient customs; as well as a couple of mummified important figures. You will also find numerous weapons and soldier`s uniforms back from 1,200 B.C., so as horse saddles, spurs, armors and items from many different places and times.

By exploring its large exhibits rooms, you will become aware of what Peru and the rest of the world was like in ancient times.
