PRIVATE SERVICE – SPANISH OR ENGLISH. OTHER LANGUAGES SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

Guided visit of the splendid citadel of Pachacamac (ancient Peruvian god), believed to be the creator of the universe among the old Andean civilizations.

According to the legend, in the beginning of the world there was no food for the first man and woman, therefore the man starved to death. On the other hand, the Sun fecundated the woman, but Pachacamac, filled with jealousy, killed their son right after she gave birth. He tore him to pieces and scattered his remains, which became the essential ingredients of mankind: his teeth became maize, his bones “yucca”; besides other vegetables and fruits. There are no artistic representations of Pachacamac, since he was considered invisible. The pilgrimage site located in Lurin`s valley (south of Lima), best known as Pachacamac`s Sanctuary, was a place of worship through many centuries.

The citadel comprises temples, pyramids and palaces, such as “Temple of the Sun”, the “Temple of Pachacamac”, the “Acllahuasi” or “Palace of the Virgins of the Sun”, among others. A sacred site, considered to be part of the planet mystical axis.
