

TOUR: WAQRA PUKARA

PERU: CUSCO

Itinerary details

The name Waqrapukara derive from quechua words: Waqra means “horns” and Pukara means “Fortress”. We can deduce that Waqrapukara means the “Horn Fortress”.

Altitude: 4,300 meters above sea level

Season: all year round

Duration: 10 hours approximately

Difficulty level: regular (it's important to acclimatize previous the activity)

Timetable (pick up): 4:00 am

Return: 18:00 pm approximately

Pick up from the hotel at 04.00 hours, we will drive to the south and during the journey, we will sight Pomacanchi Lagoon and make a short stop to admire it. We will keep driving upon the arrival to Sangarara town, where we will enjoy breakfast and afterwards we will continue with the journey to Rinconada community, which is the starting point of the hike.

During our hike, we will appreciate the typical flora and fauna of the surrounding area and three hours later, we will arrive to the Archeological Site of Waqrapukara. We will visit the most important places such as Intipunku (The Sun's Gate), the main square, turrets, ancient Inca platforms, Wiracocha enclosure and some cave paintings with flames representations.

Return to Sangarara for our lunch and return to hotel in Cusco at 18.00 hours approximately.

RECOMENDATIONS: Proper shoes for hikes, water resistance clothes, sunglasses, sun screen, headgear (hat – peaked cap), gloves, warm clothes.
