

CULINARY TOUR (NIGHT SHIFT)

PERU: LIMA

Details

This tour begins at a luxury restaurant located right on the beach with spectacular views of the coast of Lima, Here a professional bartender will share the secrets to make the perfect Pisco Sour so you can impress your friends when you return home. After this refreshing cocktail we head to the flavors of the jungle. The Amáz restaurant has been recognized for its lively and welcoming design as well as its culinary creations, the next stop is a classic place among Lima citizens - the prestigious restaurant Huaca Pucllana, located within an archaeological complex with illuminated ruins of 500 AD. In this restaurant you can enjoy a selection of Peruvian dishes with a gourmet touch and another pisco cocktail. To end the evening, we will head to the bohemian neighborhood of Barranco for a walk under the stars eating handmade ice cream.

WHAT TO BRING

Usually the tours are casual and although we do not spend much time walking, it is recommended to be comfortable as there are times of the day when we pass through cobbled streets while exploring the city. Some of the restaurants are more elegant and therefore if you can avoid sneakers is better, but if not possible it is not a requirement. The dress code would be something like elegant sport, however, the most important thing is that they are comfortable.
